

RESOURCES FOR THOSE LIVING WITH UREA CYCLE DISORDER

Amgen has put together these resources for your information.
Amgen is not responsible for the content or activities of these organizations.

UCD & RELATED ORGANIZATIONS

- Connecting Families UCD Foundation (www.ucdfamily.org): Resource for UCD families to get support that hosts annual camps, mental health gatherings and educational programs to connect families living with UCD
- Flok (flok.org): Available app to help track low-protein diet and other needs, hosts adaptive camps annually
- National Urea Cycle Disorders Foundation (nucdf.org): Provides front-line support to patients and families in need along with informational materials while leading research, raising awareness and advocating for patient needs

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

- The Assistance Fund (tafcares.org): Co-Pay, insurance premiums and/or travel support
- Good Days (mygooddays.org): Co-Pay, insurance premiums, travel support and diagnostic testing assistance
- Patient Advocate Foundation Rare Disease CareLine (www.patientadvocate.org/connect-with-services/case-management-services-and-carelines) : Free and confidential navigational assistance with financial and practical challenges

TRAVEL ASSISTANCE

- Miracle Flights (miracleflights.org): Commercial flight coverage for lifesaving, necessary medical needs

Amgen has put together these resources for your information.
Amgen is not responsible for the content or activities of these organizations.

MENTAL HEALTH SUPPORT

- Center for Chronic Illness (www.thecenterforchronicillness.org): Broad Chronic Illness support group and Supporting Loved Ones support group
- Our Odyssey (ourodyssey.org): Young adult focused social and emotional support groups for those with rare and chronic conditions

ADDITIONAL SUPPORT

- Bromberg and Associates (www.brombergtranslations.com): Offers translation services, including document translation and live call service at no cost to families impacted by UCD
- National Organization of Rare Disorders (NORD) (rarediseases.org): Provides Caregiver Aid Programs and Educational support for rare-disease-specific offerings such as workshops and nutrition classes
- Global Genes (globalgenes.org): Offers services like RARE Concierge to support patients, caregivers and healthcare providers; Hosts an annual conference to connect and educate the rare disease community
- Unite Us (uniteus.com/ultra-rare): Social Care Networking Organization that connects patients directly with Unite Us social care experts to help find available free and localized resources to support unique needs such as legal counsel, travel support, housing, etc.
- Mejo (www.mymejo.com): Online digital tool that helps to keep track of patient medical and care information (free to use, additional features that can be paid for)